

Thompson Community Center Fundraiser Egg Roll Order Form

The money raised by this egg roll sale will benefit three Thompson Community Center programs:

- Hmong Mental Health Counseling – Provides treatment that incorporates not only mental health counseling and collaboration with the local medical community but also socialization and shared cultural experience.
- Making the Ride Happen – Serves as a centralized transportation call center for seniors in Outagamie, Calumet and Winnebago counties and coordinates rides provided by volunteers.
- Visually Impaired Persons (VIP) Support Group – Offers monthly support group meetings, a calling network, newsletter and special trips for visually impaired individuals.

Order deadline: Friday, May 28, 2010

Pick up/delivery day: Tuesday, June 8 from 11:00 am-2:00 pm

ADDITIONAL CHARITABLE DONATION

The Thompson Community Center provides 15 services and more than 50 activities that help older adults and their family members enjoy a healthy lifestyle, stay connected to each other and community resources, maintain emotional health, and navigate life changes. Your financial support helps us to continue to be a place where friends new and old meet, a place to pursue new and long-standing interests, a dance and yoga studio, a favorite lunch spot, a low cost wellness clinic, an arts and crafts studio, a place to get or find help, a night out with friends, a foreign language classroom, a movie spot, a beloved hang out, a place to bring a loved one you are caring for while you are at work or need a break, and so much more.

Yes, I want to help the older adults and caregivers who benefit from the services of the Thompson Community Center.
